Church News

Our 170th anniversary service will be held on Sunday 17th March 2019 at 9.30 am. The following are important points about the organisation for the day.

- We are asking all who can to provide a small plate of morning tea please.
- Invitations were sent out during the week ending 15 February with the RSVP on Sunday 3 March 2019.
- We wish to have a high definition video camera so that we can record the service and also transmit the picture and sound to the digital projector and project to the screen in the meeting room which will accommodate the overflow of visitors. If anyone knows of someone who might be able to loan us this equipment and hopefully set up and operate it for us, please contact Darryl Dyson.
- Dianne Dyson and Steph Dube will most likely help lead the service. John Penberthy will provide the music, Anthony Hails sound and projection and Helen MacFarlane flowers.
- The organising committee consists of Steph Dube, Ruth Work, John Howland, Dianne and Darryl Dyson.
- We need a small group of volunteers to help on this important occasion please.
- Tasks include:
  - a working bee prior to the event, which is planned for Saturday 9 March 2019 at 9.00am
  - setting up on Saturday 16 March at 9.00am
  - carpark stewards, church stewards/greeters/ushers (to help people find seats)
  - Collectors for the offering, both in the Church and any other rooms used
  - kitchen volunteers

As mentioned in the last newsletter, a Ladies Guild was formed in 1936, supported the church both spiritually and financially until recent times. History in Australia was often male centric with ladies referred to by their husband's name and our Guild ladies were no different

Margaret Jacobs kindly supplied me with the names of many guild ladies. Others were with two photos dated 1948 taken on the Strange property in Star and Arrow Road. Those in the list with an * are those who we know were foundation members.

So we have so far; Mrs Barnes (Minister's wife), Mrs Basey, Mrs
